ECO-NATURAL™ ELITE

C574R RECUMBENT CYCLE

The SportsArt C574R Recumbent Cycle combines accessible design, comfortable adjustability and self-powered performance for demanding commercial environments. Its step-through frame makes entry and exit easy, while horizontal seat and backrest adjustments help users find a comfortable, supportive riding position. Fingertip resistance controls and 40 resistance levels allow quick workout adjustments, while contact heart rate sensors provide convenient performance feedback. As part of the ECO-NATURAL™ Elite Series, the C574R operates without external power, supporting flexible facility placement and reduced energy consumption.
