A990 GLUTE TRAINER

The SportsArt A990 Glute Trainer supports effective, comfortable glute training with a backrest that pivots naturally through the movement. An adjustable hip pad improves access and locks securely during use, while the large non-skid footplate accommodates varied foot positions. Resistance-band pegs provide additional loading options.

KEY FEATURES

- Pivoting backrest moves with the user throughout the full range of motion for improved stability
- Resistance band pegs allow for increased load or a change of strength curve
- Pivoting hip pad provides easier ingress/egress and locks securely in place while in use
- Manufactured to meet EN ISO 20957 / ASTM F2276 standards
